A NEW WOMAN.

She's up to date and strictly new, And yet she's not affame with zeal. She wears no skirt that's sewed in two. She is not skilled to ride a wheel.
Her sex's wrongs she does not feel.
No public scheme her thoughts pursus,
And yet, the fact I can't conceal,
She's very new.

Her soul's ideals are scant and few, Yet not by man is she controlled,
And, though her eyes are deeply blue
No occult force her glances hold.
She cares not for the days of old, Nor does the future charm her view. She does not work for fame or gold. All homage at her shrine is due.
Her claim no mortal dares to scora.
She from the infinite takes her cue.
She's fresh as earth's primeval morn.

For, now to prove my statements true, It's scarce one moon since she was born.
